1. Couch	8 July	JKE	Believe request to EBC in his letter of 6 June should stand. Despite Campbell's protests, he is fully aware of the value of centralized control and coordination of the expenditure of effort. FOS should at all times be informed of Medburo's continuing commitments in terms of special processing and filing as well as coverage when planning a possible shift of commitments, e.g. from Okinawa to Medburo. 5. COUCH	13 July	JKE	I think we should hold firm on the need for HQ prior review of proposed standing, continuing EBC requirements on Medbureau, including long term coverage to meet EBC operational needs, STAT filing of backstop program summaries, etc. Campbell's misgivings are aimed at possible disruption of the est established London-Rubinstein channels of day-to-day liaison with Kyrenia, it would seem.

Dear Joe:

Subject: Coordination Requirements

John Campbell today gave me the attached letter for Roger, which, as you see, expresses a certain amount of misgivings about the way in which the new method of coordination for requirements will affect BBC week-to-week relations with Cyprus.

I hope I am not misreading your letter by concluding that it really applies only to Cyprus, since the London Bureau has always cleared any request it receives through Washington. If it does apply only to Cyprus, I can see the beginning of what may be some rather cumbersome procedures. Only time and experience will show whether this is true.

My own feeling on Cyprus-BBC coordination has been that it is excellent and should remain on its present status with one rather notable exception: that is that Cyprus and the BBC should send drop copies of all messages pertaining to coverage and requirements to Washington, which would intervene and provide guidance and direction as it saw fit.

I realize that this letter to the BBC does not come directly within my province, but I knew that you would be interested in my comment for whatever limited bit of light it might throw on the subject under discussion.

Sincerely,

[Redacted]

Chief, London Bureau
